What Pip sends to Joe as an apology for not visiting. (231) — COHSFDI

Who warns Pip against Estella? (234) — REBTEHR

Herbert's love. (235) — LACRA

Mr. Wopsel's costume man and fellow actor. (239) — REDLAANEGWVR

The play Mr. Wopsel enacted. (237-239) — LEATMH

Where Wemmick takes Pip. (244) — GEATEWN

Wemmick's condemned prisoner who was once a Coiner. (246) — LOENOLC

Where Estella was headed. (249) — DOICRMHN

Pip's nocturnal habits began to match which of Miss Havisham's relatives? (255) — MILLAAC

Problem that both Pip and Herbert fell into. (256). — DETB

Pip received a letter that who had died? (259) — RAESYJMGRGR

Who confronts Pip about his failure to visit family? (266) — BIYDD

When Pip hoped to hear from his guardian. (269) — WYTYISIFTERRTNAHBDT

The occupation that Wemmick was brought up to do. (275) — NECPEWNOORIGI

Mr. Wemmick's love interest. (279) — SIKISFISMSNF

The lady with whom Estella was placed. (281) — RARSYDLNMEB

What does Miss Havisham call Estella? (284) — CAEHDRTOL

Mr. Jaggers calls him the Spider. (289) — MUDLEMR

Who does Estella choose not to deceive and entrap? (290) — IPP

Where Pip moved. (293) — CENRGRAUDOT

Who comes back to visit Pip? (296) — VICNOTC

What the convict does with the two pound notes. (297) — SEHMUBRNT

What will happen to the convict if he is found? (301) — DAEHNG

Directions:

Use the clues and scrambled letters to fill the blanks at the top of the puzzle.

Use the numbered blocks to complete the phrase below.

The phrase is a quotation by Charles Dickens.

NAME:_____