

AQWF Flashcard Review

Directions: with a group, create 10 flashcard practice test questions for your assigned chapters. Write the question on one side and the correct answer on the back. Write NEATLY as others in class will need to be able to read these. You must cover ALL of the question topics below. You may use: your book, notes, quiz questions (you can remember), graphic organizers

Question topics:

1. background information – true facts about WWI, the author, or the novel
2. plot details – significant events from the chapter(s)
3. character details – significant character description, changes, or moments
4. theme – examples of one or more of the five themes covered in class from your assigned chapter(s)
5. literary element – examples of literary elements within your assigned chapter(s)

AQWF Flashcard Review

Directions: with a group, create 10 flashcard practice test questions for your assigned chapters. Write the question on one side and the correct answer on the back. Write NEATLY as others in class will need to be able to read these. You must cover ALL of the question topics below. You may use: your book, notes, quiz questions (you can remember), graphic organizers

Question topics:

1. background information – true facts about WWI, the author, or the novel
2. plot details – significant events from the chapter(s)
3. character details – significant character description, changes, or moments
4. theme – examples of one or more of the five themes covered in class from your assigned chapter(s)
5. literary element – examples of literary elements within your assigned chapter(s)

AQWF Flashcard Review

Directions: with a group, create 10 flashcard practice test questions for your assigned chapters. Write the question on one side and the correct answer on the back. Write NEATLY as others in class will need to be able to read these. You must cover ALL of the question topics below. You may use: your book, notes, quiz questions (you can remember), graphic organizers

Question topics:

1. background information – true facts about WWI, the author, or the novel
2. plot details – significant events from the chapter(s)
3. character details – significant character description, changes, or moments
4. theme – examples of one or more of the five themes covered in class from your assigned chapter(s)
5. literary element – examples of literary elements within your assigned chapter(s)

AQWF Flashcard Review

Directions: with a group, create 10 flashcard practice test questions for your assigned chapters. Write the question on one side and the correct answer on the back. Write NEATLY as others in class will need to be able to read these. You must cover ALL of the question topics below. You may use: your book, notes, quiz questions (you can remember), graphic organizers

Question topics:

1. background information – true facts about WWI, the author, or the novel
2. plot details – significant events from the chapter(s)
3. character details – significant character description, changes, or moments
4. theme – examples of one or more of the five themes covered in class from your assigned chapter(s)
5. literary element – examples of literary elements within your assigned chapter(s)