

The Crucible

Act Three, Part One-- page 83-102

solemn	abundant	daft	contentious
charity	affidavit	deposition	concealment
marvels	deferentially	discontent	befuddled
prodigious	effrontery	probity	sublime

1. Why does Judge Danforth badger Mary Warren about her change in testimony?
2. What is he so concerned about in her change?
3. Why won't Giles say the name of his wife in court again?
4. Why do you think that the court goes along with Mr. Putnam's testimony?

Part Two, page 102-120

sufficient	augur	pretense	lecher
harlotry

1. Why is Elizabeth Proctor still under fire for the poppet?
2. Why does the Rev. Parris interrupt and say that Mr. Proctor has been trying to blacken his name?
3. Why can't Mary Warren faint when she asked to?
4. Why Mr. Proctor call Abigail a whore in court?
5. What sins does Mr. Proctor attest to in front of the entire court?
6. What does the "yellow bird" tell Abigail?
7. What does Mary Warren do when the girls turn against her?