Answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper (typed) and attach it to this page.

1. What is the purpose of Chapter 9? Provide a full analysis of this question by looking at chapters 8 and 10 which juxtapose it and determine its validity.
2. Why does Shelley choose the mountains for the meeting in Chapter X? Discuss its symbolic nature as well as the logical reasons for it.

3. What allusion of himself does the monster make at the top of page 69? Is this allusion irrational? Why or why not?
4. List and explain Frankenstein's motivations to listen to the monster's tale on page 70.
5. If the monster tells a tale to Frankenstein in chapter 11, through how many different narrators will the story have been received at that point? Discuss your opinion about the matters of facts through such a great vine.
