

1. When the creature entered the hut, the old man shrieks and ran away from him, and so did the rest of the villagers. After he learned that the villagers are afraid of him, he resolved to stay away from them.
2. the 3 things the creature learned from the De Lacey Family was how to communicate, he tried to learn their language, he tried to match their sounds with their actions
3. The creature chopped wood and shovel snow for them because he felt guilt for stealing their food, though they are in poverty.
4. Safie is the daughter of a Turk. I learned that Safie's mother was a Christian Arab who had been enslaved by the Turks before marrying her father. She inculcated in Safie independence and intelligence that Islam prevented Turkish women from cultivating.
5. The creature enters the cottage and starts talking to De Lacey but some later the 3 children return and chase the creature away.
6. The creature declared war on the humans because De Lacey and his family didn't accept him for who he is. The creature declared war because of the rejection.
7. He takes a picture of Caroline Frankenstein that the boy has been holding and places it in the folds of the dress of a girl sleeping in a barn—Justine Moritz, who is later executed for William's murder.

9. Frankenstein destroys the female creature because he starts to think that they may have children and destroy the world with their evil plans. That the male creature well not let go of what the humans did to him. The male creature becomes enraged at Victor for breaking his promise, and at the prospect of his own continued solitude. He curses and vows revenge then departs, swearing that he will be with Victor on his wedding night.
- 10.
11. On the wedding night Elizabeth is the one who gets killed by the creature. Well Elizabeth was killed because Frankenstein didn't complete the female creature and had destroyed it before it was made.
12. The report that Walton gave Frankenstein, Frankenstein dies a few days after. The creature finds out his creator as died, so the creature cries over his body and tells Walton that he wants to die with his creator's body.
13. After the creature jumps off the ship, he departs into the darkness.
- 14.
15. I feel more sympathetic for the creature because he is not being accepted by the humans and he has to hide from them so he won't scare them away. The creature can't always be alone in this world he needs someone at least to be with him, that can call his own.
16. I think yes he deserved them because he shouldn't have made the creature in the first place, because of him the creature goes though so much.
17. I don't think that humans well ever be friends with a creature unless the creature is not scary. If the creature is scary of course the humans will be scared and wont want to be friends with him.
