

A Middle-earth Adventure guide

As we follow Bilbo's journey, we learn a lot of interesting things about Middle Earth and its inhabitants. Going on an adventure can be exciting, but it is a good idea to know what you are getting into before you go.

Your Task

You are going to create a guide book that future adventurers can use. Include the following:

- ❖ How to pack for traveling
- ❖ Guide pages for each race. Include the following races: hobbits, wizards, dwarves, elves and men. Include characteristics, culture, customs, etc.
- ❖ Overcoming obstacles (choose 2): Trolls, Gollum's Riddles, Dragons, Goblins, Wargs

The Details

You may use Microsoft Publisher or Power Point, or do this by hand.

Remember to make it look medieval! Use scrolls and fancy fonts.

Each page needs at least one illustration.

Work in pairs (unless you prefer to work alone). The group cannot be larger than three.
