

Section One: Write the correct name, place, or term in the blank provided. Some terms will not be used. Others may be used more than once.

Amir	Hassan	Rahim Khan	Ali	Assef	Sanuabar
Sophia	Soraya	Farid	Sohrab	school	pomegranate tree

1. _____ = For one chapter, the novel’s point of view switches to this person’s.
2. _____ = If the novel were an old Western, this person would be Amir’s faithful sidekick for his “adventures” when he returns to Afghanistan.
3. _____ = Becomes part of the Taliban.
4. _____ = Named after an Afghan storybook hero.
5. _____ = Place other than his house that Amir revisits upon his return to Kabul.
6. _____ = From a beggarly professor, Amir finds out more about this person than he had ever known before.
7. _____ = Loses an eye to a slingshot wound.
8. _____ = Besides Amir, the person who betrays a close friend.
9. _____ = Amir begins to look like this person because of an injury to his lip.
10. _____ = Hassan’s real father.

Section Two: Answer the following questions (be sure to answer all parts).

11-12. In this section, Amir discovers that he is more like Baba than he had imagined. Give two ways in which he is like is father.

13-17. Amir narrates, “It hit me again, the enormity of what I had done that winter and that following summer. The names rang in my head: Hassan, Sohrab, Ali, Farzana, Sanuabar.” For each of the names below, state whether you think Amir is partly responsible for what happened to the character and explain why you believe that.

Hassan:

Sohrab:

Ali:

Farzana:

Sanuabar:

18. Why did Baba treat Amir worse than Hassan?

19 and 20. Name two ways Kabul has changed in the 20 years since Amir left.

Bonus (short answer): What makes Amir cuss at Rahim Khan in these chapters?