

Section One: Identification—write the correct name or term next to its description. Names may be used once, more than once, or not at all.

- |               |               |               |                   |                    |                    |
|---------------|---------------|---------------|-------------------|--------------------|--------------------|
| Amir   | Hassan | Baba   | Rahim Khan | Kamal       | writer      |
| Soraya | Assef  | doctor | kite       | soccer ball | pomegranate |
1. _____ = yells out a confession at night, but nobody hears him
  2. _____ = what Amir throws at Hassan to see if Hassan will get even with him
  3. _____ = gives Amir a watch for his birthday
  4. _____ = gives Amir a book about Hitler for his birthday
  5. _____ = gives Amir a leather book to write in for his birthday
  6. _____ = what Amir goes to college to become
  7. _____ = character who offers Amir “a way to be good again” by calling him
  8. _____ = this character experiences bad karma as Amir leaves Afghanistan
  9. _____ = He loves the idea of America, but living there gives him an ulcer.
  10. _____ = person who has something in his/her past that makes Amir feel a little less guilty

Section Two: Answer the following questions in complete sentences.

11-12. Give two examples from these chapters to show that Amir’s relationship with his father has or has not changed since they came to America.

13-14. Of what does Baba die, and upon his deathbed, what shows that Baba finally approves of Amir?

15. Why does the author make Amir’s wife unable to have children?

16. How do Baba and Amir escape from Afghanistan?

17-18. Give two examples from these chapters to show that Baba is a very proud character.

19. True or False: Baba approves of Amir’s choice of wife.

20. What does Soraya do for a living, and why is this important?

Bonus: In which American city do Amir and Baba live?