

A Tale of Two Cities Book 1 Review

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate word.

The purpose of Book 1 is to serve as a(n) _____ to the rest of the book. In chapter 1, we learn that the action of the story takes place in two twin cities, _____ and _____. The situation in both cities is described as _____.

In chapter 2 and 3 the first two characters we meet in the book are _____ who is a _____, and _____ who is a _____. The first of these characters can generally be described as _____, while the second is _____.

_____ receives a cryptic message and makes this equally mysterious reply _____. We later learn that this message is related to a young lady _____ and a mysterious man who has been "buried alive" for _____. _____ is very worried about both of these characters, and he dreams of encountering the mysterious ghost of the man who has been recalled to life and feels _____ about it.

We learn more about the young lady _____ is protecting in chapter 4, where they are preparing for _____. She can best be described as _____.

Lorry usually refers to her as _____. He is attached to her and has protected her since he brought her from _____ as a baby, as he finally tells her. She is _____ years old and her mother was _____ and her father _____. We learn that the man who has been "recalled to life" is _____ and his name is _____. He has been using a different name because _____. Lorry reminds her the importance of keeping this _____. When she hears this news, the young lady _____ and her nurse scolds Lorry.

Chapter 5 opens with the wine, which _____ and people react immediately by _____. The wineshop is owned by _____. These people are involved in a secret movement, and they call each other by the name _____. The woman spends her days _____. Lorry and _____ visit the wine shop and find Dr. Manette, who is _____. His physical appearance is described as _____. He spends his days sitting in _____ until his visitors arrive and let in the _____. When they ask him his name, he replies that his name is _____.

_____ He was not a shoemaker before entering the prison. When he sees his daughter, he asks her _____. Her hair reminds him of _____, but he realizes she is too young to be that person.

The book ends with Jarvis Lorry thinking about the man he unburied and remembering the vision he had in his dream when he asked the ghost, " _____

_____ " and the ghost replied, " _____

_____."