

8) What was theme of this story?

9) The narrator's story is full of seemingly ridiculous statements. Which did you find the most ridiculous? Now, can you think of any information that, if known, would make the ridiculous statement seem reasonable?

10) Did this story scare you? If so, what scared you the most? If not, what could have made it scary?