

Point of View Paragraph

After reading "Tell-Tale heart" by Edgar Allan Poe in the red literature book on page 202, you will write a page long essay through the viewpoint of one of the following characters in the story. Choose ONE of the choices below.

Narrator: Write about your day up until you kill the old man

Old Man: Write about your day up until you die; then as a ghost write why you think the narrator killed you

Police Officer: Write about your day including the stop at the narrator's house and his odd revelation/admittance

Investigator: Write about your day including when you have to be called in to interview the suspect over at the narrator's house

Coroner: Write about your day including when you are delivered the pieces of the old man's body. Tell how he died.

Psychologist: Write about why you think – mentally – the narrator killed the old man. Then tell how you think you can mentally help him
