Directions: Following yesterday's discussion of the opening two paragraphs of Their Eyes and the use of imagery in each, complete a three-panel visual depiction of each paragraph's content being sure to include all of the relevant details.

Paragraph 1: The Life of Men

Ships at a distance have every man's wish on board. For some they come in with the tide. For others they sail forever on the horizon, never out of sight, never landing until the Watcher turns his eyes away in resignation, his dreams mocked to death by Time. That is the life of men.

Paragraph 2: The Dream Is the Truth

Now, women forget all those things they don't want to remember, and remember everything they don't want to forget. The dream is the truth. Then they act and do things accordingly.
