1. Place these six events in chronological order. (2 pts)
   a. Tom Robinson’s case is tried in court.
   b. Atticus shoots a rabid dog.
   c. Dill arrives in Maycomb for the first time.
   d. Miss Maudie’s house burns down.
   e. Jem breaks his arm.
   f. The Finch children read to Mrs. DuBose.

2. Identify three of the following minor characters and describe their roles in the story (3 pts):
   a. Mr. Link Deas
   b. Mr. Underwood
   c. Mr. Dolphos Raymond
   d. Miss Gates
   e. Cecil Jacobs

3. The Finch children have many adults in their lives filling the role of parent figures. From the following group, compare and contrast two characters’ parenting styles. Use evidence from the text as support. (4 pts)
   a. Calpurnia
   b. Uncle Jack Finch
   c. Aunt Alexandra
   d. Atticus Finch

4. Analyze the significance of Atticus shooting Tim Johnson, a rabid dog. (4 pts)

5. Explain the significance of the title and how it relates to characters in the book. (6 pts)

6. Among other things, this is a story about children growing up. Identify three places in the text that serve as evidence of the children’s newly acquired maturity. (3 pts)

7. Infer Scout’s attitude about being a girl. Support your answer with evidence from the text. (3 pts)

8. Apply Atticus’ definition of “real courage” to an important figure of today. Would he or she win Atticus’s admiration? Why or why not? (Your answer should clearly identify Atticus’s definition.) (8 pts)