1. Why is Scout so ashamed of Atticus at the start of this chapter?
____________________________________________________________________

2. Miss Maudie told Scout that Atticus was the best_______-player in Maycomb.
(and that he let Jem and Scout win all the time)

3. She also tells Scout that it's a sin to kill a mockingbird. Why is that?
____________________________________________________________________

4. What does Atticus do that shocks Jem into silence? (Heck wouldn't do it--he made Atticus to it)
____________________________________________________________________

5. What makes Jem destroy Mrs. Dubose's flowers?
____________________________________________________________________

6. What does Jem also ruin that he just bought for Scout with his birthday money?
____________________________________________________________________

7. What does Atticus make Jem do for an entire month as his punishment?
____________________________________________________________________

8. What sound signals that the children are to stop what they are doing and must leave
Mrs. Dubose's house?
____________________________________________________________________

9. What was the real reason behind the children having to be with her every day? What was Mrs. Dubose trying to overcome?
____________________________________________________________________

10. Atticus wanted the children to see what real courage was. How did he define real courage?
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________